Fight Leads to Multiple Arrests at Convenience Store

On June 10, 2022, at approximately 6:50 pm Manchester Police responded to the 7-Eleven convenience store at 242 Beech St for a report of a robbery in progress involving a firearm.

The caller reported that the suspect was still in the store. Numerous Manchester Officers responded to the scene and encountered many individuals both inside and outside of the store. As officers attempted to identify a suspect with the firearm, two groups began fighting in the parking lot. A chaotic scene unfolded as more and more people got involved in the altercation. As it escalated, officers were attacked and assaulted. At one point, all working Manchester Police Officers were on-scene to calm the riotous behavior.

Manchester Police arrested four individuals during the course of this incident and ultimately learned that there had been no robbery with a firearm. The initial investigation revealed that both involved groups knew each other and the altercations were the result of an ongoing conflict.

Two Manchester Police Officers were injured as a result of this incident. Both were treated at a local hospital and have been discharged.

Arrested were the following: 29-year-old George Stanley of Manchester who was charged with Simple Assault- DV, Felony Riot, and Resisting Arrest. 24-year-old Richard Cooper and 25-year-old Howard Cooper of Manchester and 29-year-old Alexander Cooper of Hooksett were all charged with Felony Riot and Resisting Arrest.
